

Getting to Saarbrücken from Saarbrücken Airport

The Airport of Saarbrücken is the smallest official German airport. The website of the Airport is: <http://www.flughafen-saarbruecken.de/>

The bus stop from Saarbrücken Airport is called "Flughafen, Saarbrücken Ensheim (SCN)". From there, you can proceed to the city center of Saarbrücken using the bus R10. This bus runs once per hour to Saarbrücken central station ("Saarbrücken Hauptbahnhof"). The traveling time is 27 minutes.

Tickets can be bought directly on the bus (2,60€). If you have a valid "Semesterticket", you can ride the bus for free, just show your htw saar card to the bus driver.

The website of the Saarbrücken bus system is this: <https://saarvv.de>

If you get stuck at the airport, for example if your plane arrives very late and there are no more connections, you can call a taxi (telephone number: 0049 681 55000, price: around 35€ to Saarbrücken city center).
